The Progress of Japan.

According to a report of the Swiss consul-general in Yokohama, no one would have dared ten years ago to predict Japan's wonderful development. In 1893 its foreign trade was about $93,500,000; in 1903. $125,500,000. The bank deposits of Tokio in 1905 amounted to less than $18,500,000; in 1903 they had risen to $26,500,000. Those of Osaka amounted to $5,000,000 in 1903 and to $83,500,000 in 1903. The same surprises await one in connection with Manchurla and Korea.
